

- South Africa is famous for its sunshine.
- Along most of the South African coastline, it is beach holiday weather from October to March.
- The months of April and May are usually the most pleasant months.
- The rainy season of the summer rainfall region has then ended, while it has not yet really begun in the winter rainfall region.
- Cloudy conditions are common along the western and eastern coastlines, particularly during summer.

